

NOTICE

Effective immediately all construction permit applications may be subject to a plan review fee in accordance with the NJ Uniform Construction Code.

Once the application is received. The permit fee will be calculated, and you will receive an email for the plan review fee. The plan review fee is twenty-five (25%) percent of the permit fee.

The review of the application will not commence until the plan review fee is paid in full.

When the permit is ready to be issued the review fee will be subtracted from the total permit fee for the project applied for.
